MBA Department in association with Tamil Nadu Advanced Technical Training Institute (TATTI), inaugurated the Mohamed Sathak- Technology and Business Incubator at Mohamed Sathak College of Arts and Science, Chennai for the benefit of students who aspire to become entrepreneurs and engage in startups.

The program started with the recital of Kirat by the Arabic Professor, followed by the Welcome address by Prof. Keerthana. Principal Dr Mohamed Jaabir addressed the gathering and, during his speech, highlighted the importance of startups in India and the spirit of entrepreneurship in the student community.

Mr. R. Suderasan, Director, of Tamil Nadu Advanced Technical Training Institute (TATTI) in his talk emphasized the role of faculty members in training the students, and he underlined that students are not our customers but the companies who hire them are our customers. We have to keep the industry perspective while training the students.

Chief Guest Mr. Sathappan, General Manager, Aspire Systems during his address reiterated that innovative ideas at first can fail, but the students should keep experimenting with their ideas and later they can experience success. He said the Incubation center inauguration is a seed sown today for creating many successful entrepreneurs tomorrow.

The program came to a close with the vote of thanks and the dignitaries and the Guests were invited to Commerce block, Room no. 502 for the ribbon cutting ceremony. After which group photo was taken.
