Mohamed Sathak – Department of Management Studies (MS-DoMS) gladly welcomes MBA students for Semester I – 33rd Batch 2026 – 2028 with a vision, “Creating innovative thinkers and global leaders”.

MS-DoMS organized an orientation programme ‘GENESIS 2K26’ with the intention of encouraging a friendly atmosphere between students from different intellectual, geographic, and socioeconomic backgrounds. Establishing a managerial education orientation in students, encouraging interpersonal relationships, and sowing the seeds of holistic self-development are some of the main objectives of this orientation program.

The session began with Dean of Management Studies, Mr. N. Logesh address, who set the tone of entrepreneurial spirit to the students. Followed by an overview of the MBA program structure, curriculum, and academic expectations, helping students grasp how the course is organised and what is required to succeed.

Dr. Marina Paul, HoD, MS – DoMS extended a warm welcome to the students followed by an Overview of the MBA program presented by Prof. Parthiban. J.

Ms. P. Muthurani (State Coordinator – Vanavil Mandram – DPI) the invited speaker for this Genesis 2K26 program delivered an inspiring lecture on Leadership and stress management which focussed on common challenges such as tight deadlines, group work and presentations, while offering practical strategies like time management, periodization and seeking support when needed.

Ms. P. Muthurani further spoke on leadership, emphasizing qualities such as integrity, accountability and effective communication. She encouraged students to view classroom activities as opportunities to develop their leadership potential.

Overall, the Orientation program equipped students with both academic clarity and essential personal effectiveness skills to begin their MBA program with confidence.
